

Group Name:	Contact 1:	Contact 1 Email ends in @amherst.edu:	Contact 2:	Contact 2 Email ends in @amherst.edu:	Group Email & Web Site ends in @amherst.edu:
Active Minds	Benjamin Blond	bblond08	David Pechman	dpechman08	www.activemindsoncampus.org
	Active Minds is a national organization that promotes awareness about mental health issues. It also seeks to fight stigma against mental illness and promote the idea that there is no shame in seeking treatment.
African and Caribbean Organization	Elias Aba Milki	eabamilki10	Ayanda Bam	mbam10
	This is a new organization whose main objective is to increase cultural awareness in Amherst College's community. There will be discussions on social, political and economical issues in the regions concerned. There will be many cultural events and also collaborations with organizations throughout the Five Colleges.
Amherst Argentine Tango	Michael K. Yang	mkyang	Tri D. Nguyen	tnguyen	www.amhersttangoclub.org
	We will hold weekly practice sessions and lessons with guest teachers, a Tango Bootcamp for new members every few weeks so that members can generally dance at the same level and a monthly Milonga (social dance) open to the entire community. We also plan to participate in the 5 College tango-related events as well as at regional events such as the Yale Tango Festival.
Amherst Bowling Team	Juliet Tan	jtan08	Jack Byers	jbyers08
	We meet every Thursday night for a friendly informal league.
Amherst Breaking Club	Brian S. Chung	bschung			abc@ www.amherst.edu/~abc
	Regular practice, watching videos, discussion... for people interested in breakdancing.
Amherst College Anime Club	Chris Paredes	cparedes09	Martin Agoilera	maguilera09	anime@ www.halogen.note.amherst.edu/~anime
	Anime screenings and discussions and Anime Boston Convention.
Amherst College Blue Stockings	Eve Turow	eturow09	Rachael Gross	rgross08	bluesox@
	Blue Stockings is an all female a cappella group. We will hold various performances on campus as well as the surrounding neighborhoods throughout the school year.
Amherst College Debate Team	Marisa Maleck	mcmaleck	Jonathan Borowsky	jborowsky	debateteam@
	Our team holds meetings, debate and speech tournaments, as well as debate practice sessions and workshops.
Amherst College Democrats	Charles Tanenbaum	ctanenbaum09	Zachary Mason	zmason08	democrat@

	The college Dems have been promoting progressive causes throughout the county for decades. We canvas for candidates, hold voter registration drives and generally serve as a clearing house for progressive activism.
Amherst College GNU/Linux User's Group	James Buchanan	jbuchanan09
	We are a group of students dedicated to encouraging and supporting the use of Free and Open Source Software on campus. We hope to write documentation to supplement IT's insufficient Linux-specific documentation, distribute and share free and open software (saving bandwidth) and both teach and learn from our fellow students.
Amherst College Mock Trial	David Westwood	dwestwood09	Michael Goldsticker	mgoldsticker09	mocktrial@
	The mock trial team enters tournaments throughout the year that challenge us to use skills of debate, performance and the formulation of case theories.
Amherst College Outing Club	Ariel Morales	abmorales	Marina Weiss	mweiss08	acoc@
	The Outing Club was formed in the 1930s and serves as a provider of outdoors activities for Amherst College students. It also facilitates outdoor recreation by providing students with the appropriate gear.				www.amherst.edu/~acoc
Amherst College Program Board (ACPB)	Laura Jarrett	ljarrett	Maddy Levine	milevine
	We bring concerts, speakers, comedians, game nights, etc.
Amherst College Quiz Bowl Team	Ryan Peeks	rpeeks09
	The Quiz Bowl Team was founded two years ago to give Amherst students the opportunity to participate in intercollegiate Quiz Bowl tournaments. We meet once a week.
Amherst College Republicans	Adriana Fazzano	afazzano08	Carolyn Kendall		acrepublik@
	The Amherst College Republicans strive to educate the college community about conservative values through various discussions, forums and political activities. Each fall the group holds an inaugural 'Hot Wings with the Right Wings' event.
Amherst College Rugby Football Club	B. Dale du Prez	bdduprez			rugby@
	We participate in the New England Rugby Football Union Collegiate Division 1 league and will play games in both the fall and spring. All those interested in playing should feel free to attend one of our practices.				www.amherst.edu/~rugby
Amherst College Ski Team	Jennifer Cotton	jd cotton			ski@
	The AC Ski Team fosters organized and competitive inter-collegiate ski racing with an emphasis on team unity and personal growth. We welcome students of all ability levels to participate in an inclusive team environment, training for a week during interterm and racing on to weekends during the winter.				www.amherst.edu/~ski
Amherst College Students for Inner Peace	Katina Hubbard	kfhubbard

	Formerly the Art of Living Club. Umbrella organization for spiritual activities in the valley, including yoga, meditation and breathing workshops. Also works with Student Health Educators on stress and sleep workshop materials.
Amherst College Women's Rugby Football Club	Jennifer Cotton	jd cotton	Tes Siarnacki	tes siarnacki	acwrfc@ www.amherst.edu/~acwrfc
Amherst College Zumbyes	Andrew Rubenstein	acrubenstein	A cappella group.		zumbyes@ www.zumbyes.com
Amherst Cricket	B. Dale du Prez	bdduprez	Anoop Menon	armenon	cricket@ We have played cricket on a semi-regular basis for the last two years. We welcome everyone vaguely interested in playing (and learning to play) the sport.
Amherst Dance	Samantha Siegal	ssiegal08	Melissa Rodis	mrodis08	www.amherst.edu/~dance Amherst Dance holds two concerts a year, one each semester. We rehearse weekly for these performances, which tend to occur towards the end of the semester. This semester we will also be holding master classes and taking a trip to NYC.
Amherst Hamster, The	Adam Bookman	abookman08	Jay Buchman	jlbuckman	hamster@ www.amherst.edu/~hamster We are the college humor magazine. We were established in 1986 and publish issues every few months. We plan to publish at least one or two issues this semester.
Amherst Isshinryu Karate	Tara Kulkarni	tkulkarni	We provide formal training in a traditional Okinawa martial art, emphasizing forms, self-defense and fighting. We have also begun providing training in Brazilian Jiu Jitsu. We hold a martial arts demonstration once a year as well as promotional tests at the end of each semester.
Amherst Men's Club Volleyball	Enis Moran	emoran	Matthew Herman	mherman09	We will be practicing volleyball about twice a week in Alumni Gymnasium and later (in the winter), we will be traveling to other campuses to play in tournaments.
Amherst Model United Nations	Josh Nathan	jnathan10	The Amherst Model United Nations club is finalizing its plan to join the Model United Nations Conference at the University of Pennsylvania in November 2-5. If you are interested in participating, please contact Josh Nathan. For more information: www.upmun.org		www.upmun.org
Amherst Riding Club	Christi Bonin	csbonin	Caroline Leeds	cleeds08	riding@

	The equestrian team activities consist of daily lessons and weekly competitions. Each rider rides either once or twice per week and shows are held on Saturdays. We also host a home horse show at the end of the season.				www.amherst.edu/~riding
Amherst Women's Ultimate Frisbee	Joanna Wasik Practices four times a week and will attend tournaments.	jwasik08	Erin Simpler	esimpler08
Amnesty International	Amnesty International focuses on human rights issues around the world. It is independent of any government, political party or religious group. We will host letter writing campaigns, urgent action drives and awareness meetings. Ideally we will also bring in speakers and attend rallies and conferences.
Ariel - College & Career Workshop	Aneid Reyes Outreach organization in Holyoke partnering with existing groups like Arco Iris that exposes eighth and ninth graders to college and career opportunities.	areyes08	Arlette de la Cruz	adelacruz09
Asian Students Association	Diana Hong The ASA has been an active student group since the 1970s at Amherst College. We have many events planned for this year, including a Five College ASA event on Sept 28, Comedian Jo Koy, a Mooncake Hike in October, and a Big Sib/Lil' Sib Social.	dhong08	Vicky Chau	vchau08	asa@ www.amherst.edu/~asa
Awkward for a Cause	Lenore Bell We sell the 'Awkward' shirts and donate the proceeds to the American Cancer Society. It's very new and very flexible.	lbell08			awkwardtee@gmail.com
Baseball and Saber Metrics Club	The Baseball and Sabermetrics Club will provide a place for fans to share their love of baseball and its statistics. Activities will include regularly watching games and analyzing baseball data at the college, minor and major league levels.
Beyond Bodies	Emily Wright Beyond Bodies advocates a healthy lifestyle and self image. As a group, we promote healthy eating, positive body image and general well being, in addition to raising awareness of eating disorders.	egwright09	Anneliese Koehler	akoehler09	beyondbodies@
Big Brothers, Big Sisters	Rachael Gross BBBS is a mentoring/tutoring program that pairs a student with a child from one of the local elementary or middle schools. We meet once a week on campus and occasionally have special events like parties or field trips.	rgross08	Zoe Rasmussen	zarasmussen	asummers-hayes@chd.org www.chd.org/bbbs
Capture the Flag	Amos Irwin	aeirwin	Alexander Tew	ahtew

	Evening 'Capture the Flag' games.
Change for Change	Meghan Dickoff	medickoff			www.changeforchange.org
Charles Drew Health Professions Society	Kipp Weiskopf	kaweiskopf	Pamela Liu	pliu08	drewhealth@ www.amherst.edu/~drewhealth
China Awareness Organization	Michael Chen	mchen08	Cong Geng	cgeng08	cao@ www.amherst.edu/~cao
Circus	Lucy Sheehan	lsheehan08	Ashley Finigan	afinigan08	circus@ We publish a magazine once each semester. Our activities consist mainly in reading and editing submissions for the magazine and submissions are accepted from all Amherst students and professors.
Club Hockey	Benjamin Blond	bblond09	Tosin Onsfowokan	oonafowokan	Club Hockey has operated for the last few years and gained AAS approval last year. The club meets several times a week at Orr Rink to play intramural ice hockey. No contact. No experience required and all skill levels are welcome.
Council of Amherst Publications	Alex Urguhart	aurquhart08			publications@ Created to organize school publications into one group (to increase efficiency, have one office, share computers, etc.). Hold a publications fair earlier in the semester to expose students and recruit them for all of our publications (currently seven, not including 'The Student', which is independently funded).
Educate!	Eric Glustrom	ewglustrom	Boris Bulayev	bbulayev	educate@ www.educateafrica.org
El Arco Iris	Phuong Vuong	pvuong09	Erika Pettersen	epettersen08	Arco is a tutoring program. Tutors tutor for three hours, twice a week. We also work with the Community Outreach office to provide our program students with field trips and campus visits.

Entrepreneur's Club	Ashish Bhatt Meetings.	arbhatt			entrepreneurs@
Face AIDS	Lily Shapiro Organization dedicated to raising money to fight AIDS in Rwanda. We will have discussions, films, lectures, panels, etc.	lshapiro08	Clare Howard	choward10	www.faceaids.org
Fencing Club	Padraic Gerety A coeducational athletic club which provider fending instruction and a competitive atmosphere. The club will host and attend many tournaments every semester.	ppgerety	Dan Lees	dkees08	fencing@ www.amherst.edu/~fencing
Financial Aid and Class Equality (FACE)	David Anton Johnson The group was founded to ensure that financial aid students had a visible presence and voice on campus and an organized venue in which to encourage, through education, awareness about financial aid policies and socioeconomic class in general. Activities that the group will hold include: Class Awareness Week, panels, film screenings and collaborative workshops with other organizations (Outreach, Class Action, etc.) to encourage public service dealing with class issues.	djohnson08	Catherine Hong Le	chle	face@ www.amherst.edu/~face
Five College Literary Review	Victoria Seghal Literary magazine containing works by students from each of the five colleges. Will hold and arrange general interest and production meetings at each of the five colleges. Publication will be bi-yearly.	vsehgal09	Geoff Cebula	gcebula08	fclreview@
Flics	Elizabeth Newman Weekly film screenings in the Campus Center.	enewman09	Selena Xie	sxie09	flics@
Gimp Group	Ilana Klarman Learning to 'gimp': basic to more advanced stitches. All are welcome.	iklarman08
Global Rights of Women (GROW)	Destry Sibley Will hold awareness raising events and fundraisers around the issue of international women's rights. This year will focus on international sex trafficking in eastern Europe and the situation of women in Darfur. Group was formerly the Juarez Activism Group.	dsibley09	Megan Harlow	mharlow09
Gordie Foundation Circle of Trust	Michael Donovan This organization is the Amherst College chapter of the national Gordie Foundation. We will be distributing free materials each semester about recognizing alcohol poisoning and fighting against unhealthy drinking habits.	mdonovan08
Gouda Vibrations	Sara Barmettler We will be making and sampling a variety of soft and hard cheeses, with the goal of refining our palettes and paying particular attention to the region of origin	sbarmettler08	Claire Morrison	cmorrison08

Habitat for Humanity	Daniel de Zeeuw ddezeeuw08 habitat@ Our chapter builds low cost houses for those without the ability to buy a house in the area. We have builds every weekend, have a number of fundraising events, including our ever popular Gingerbread House Building Contests, and try to educate the campus about housing issues in Amherst. www.amherst.edu/~habitat
Hague International Model UN Youth Assembly (TYA), The	Annika Lawrence alawrence10 TYA is a forum recognized by the United Nations where the youth can come together to discuss global issues and form their issues into action. At the annual assembly in The Hague, The Netherlands, participants create the basis of ideas and projects for delegations in international conferences.
Hillel	Justin Epner hillel Rabbi Bruce Seltzer bbseltzer hillel@ As the only Jewish student group on campus, we provide religious, cultural, social, charitable and Israel-themed programming for students of all backgrounds. We hold prayer services, dinners, parties, fundraisers, speakers, etc.
International Students' Association	Octavia Foarta ofoarta09 Emil Temnyalov etemnyalov09 isa@ ISA is committed to promoting the diversity of culture and helping Amherst students to gain an understanding about lifestyles in different countries. Our programs include international art nights, mixers with professors, an annual international dinner, an international movie festival, various socials and weekly meetings. www.amherst.edu/~isa
Italian Club	Donatella Galella dgalella09 The Italian Club received AAS recognition in spring 2006. The club's activities have included movie screenings accompanied by lectures and dinners. This year the club will continue to screen Italian films, teach elementary Italian and play Italian games to promote Italian culture.
Juggling Club	Amos Irwin aeirwin Dan Guest dguest juggling@ Meetings, performances, loaning equipment.
Korean Heritage in the Pioneer Valley	Natalie Hong (Sang Been) shong08 KHVP815@gmail.com Meet every Saturday morning at 1am to hold educational sessions in Koran language proficiency.
Korean Students Association (KSA)	Diana Hong dhong08 Ji Hwan Lee jhlee09 ksa@ KSA was founded in 1992 by Detric Choi '96 as the Korean American Students Association. This year, we have already hosted 'Shaved Ice
La Causa	Antoinette Flores aflores08 Virginia Lora vlora08 La Causa holds weekly meetings, social events, political events and cultural events including the annual 'Voices for the Voiceless' program.

MassPIRG	Channing Jones crjones09	masspirg@
	MassPIRG is a state-wide student run activist organization. Its goal is to engage in public interest campaigns involving issues that students are concerned about. This includes taking political action, raising student awareness and organizing service events.
Men's Project	Ian Kalafatis ikalafatis08	Alexander Tew ahtew mensproject@
	A group open to men and women which holds discussions about images, media, race, sports, violence and their connection to masculinity. We are interested in stopping sexual assault and violence through awareness. We hold weekly discussions, invite speakers, hold screenings, among many other things.
Men's Ultimate Frisbee	Amos Irwin aeirwin	Alex Campbell apcampbell www.amherst.edu/~frisbee
	Frisbee practice, equipment, tournaments, travel.
Midnight Marauders	Pat Savage pesavage	marauders@ www.amherst.edu/~marauders
	New band that will perform at concerts and parties.
Moviemania	Tosin Onafowokan oonafowokan	Ben Purkis bapurkis moviemania@
	Moviemania holds screenings at popular films and tv series, cartoons, etc. In addition we do gaming on the big screen. In the past we've done a LOTR extended edition marathon and smash brother tournament.
Newman Club	James Montana jmontana08	Margaret Mattaini mmattaini09
	Sunday mass at 5pm and occasional Catholic speakers
NOTE	Tosin Onafowokan oonafowokan	note@ www.note.amherst.edu
	NOTE (Naturally on the edge) is the student tech group on campus. In the past we've built and ran scrutiny, planworld, Room Draw and the directory.
Olio	Laura Jarrett lajarrett	Amherst College's yearbook.
Oxfam Change Initiative	Victoria Sehgal	www.oxfamamerica.org
	Trade has the potential to lift millions out of poverty. But trade barriers put in place by the WTO, the European Union and the United States farm subsidies keep developing countries from the trade that will help them help themselves. We will hold movie screenings, discussions and will lobby the government to both spread awareness and to change these unfair rules.
PLAN (Putnam! Leading! Achievement! Now!)	Rachel Meketon rmeketon09	Hyowoun Jyung hjyung08
	The group tutors at Springfield's Putnam High School every Saturday morning. The focus is on helping students pass the MCAS exam, a requirement for graduation in the state of Massachusetts.
Pride Alliance	Chanel Clarke cclarke09	Chase Tanenbaum ctanenbaum09 pridealliance@

	Pride Alliance meets once a week in the Rainbow Room to plan for events and discuss LGBT issues. Pride Alliance hosts several events like GAP and a trip to Diva's as well as film screenings and other cultural educational events.	www.amherst.edu/~pridealliance
Prism Magazine	Andrea Gyorody adgyorody Katherine Willis kdwillis Prism Magazine has published two themed issues each semester since 1986. We accept fiction, nonfiction, artwork and poetry. We hold one meeting of our staff before each issue begins production.	prism@ www.amherst.edu/~prism
Progressive Student Alliance	Alice Swanson arswanson Our organization aims to create a supportive community for students interested in a variety of progressive causes. In the past we have organized lectures on topics from needle exchange to alternative development in India. We've also made publications, trips to service sites and protests, and helped with voter registration.
Project Theseus	Victoria Seghal vsehgal08 Project Theseus' mission is to strengthen the academic performance of underprivileged and at-risk youth by exposing them to the world of classics. Each student will be paired with a tutor who will not only teach the student Latin language, but will also serve as a personal mentor. Occasionally all students and mentors will get together for special events such as lectures and films. Studies have shown that Latin students outperform their non-Latin counterparts in Scholastic and standardized exams. It is our hope that through Latin, our students will gain a heightened vocabulary, a thorough understanding of English grammar and see the connections between the ancient world and our modern society today!
Relay for Life	Amy Miller amiller08 Relay for Life is an 18 hour fundraising event for the American Cancer Society to support cancer research and patient services and celebrate cancer survivors. Members of this group will help plan and run this event alongside other Five College students. Others will recruit Amherst students to participate or form their own teams.
Route 9	Andrew Dykens adykens08 Anthony Paz apazo08 Route 9 is an all male a cappella group. We have practice six hours a week and plan on holding performances in the winter and in the spring.	route9@ www.amherst.edu/~route9
Sabrinas, The	Leslie Anne Cassidy lcassidy08 Brittany Sasser bsasser08 An all-female a cappella group founded in 1979. We meet several times a week and will give several performances (Freshman show, Homecoming Bonfire, Family Weekend, Spring Show, etc.).	sabrinas@ www.amherst.edu/~sabrinas
Sailing Team	Rob Bogнар rjbognar Mike Goldman mgoldman08 Sailing practice Monday-Friday, regattas at home and away, weekly meetings.	sailing@ www.amherst.edu/~sailing
Sci Fi/Fantasy Club (SFFC)	Matthew Dougherty mdougherty08	sffc@

	The SFFC serves as a social network for those interested in Science Fiction, Fantasy and related games, movies and books. We will hold film screenings and game events throughout the semester.	www.amherst.edu/~sffc
SportsAmherst	William Nahill SportsAmherst is a publication dedicated to providing in-depth features on Amherst College athletics. We hope to publish with about the same frequency as The Indicator or about five issues a semester.
Students for Corporate Social Responsibility (SCSR)	Amos Irwin aeirwin Selena Xie sxie09 Will hold awareness raising events and demonstrations around the issues of social justice, workers rights, both nationally and internationally. We focus this semester on the practices of global corporations such as WalMart and Coca Cola.
Students for Sensible Drug Policy	Amos Irwin aeirwin Destry Sibley dsibley09 Discussions of drug war, talks on drug policy reform and relevant movies.	ssdp@
Students Taking Action Now: Darfur	Amos Irwin aeirwin Rachel Meketon rmeketon09 Rallies, discussions, talks, awareness and political action.	stand@
Swing & Ballroom Dance	Allison St. Brice astbrice08 Maya Miller-Vedam mmillervedam09 The Swing & Ballroom Dance Club gives students the opportunity to learn and practice different types of dance in a relaxed setting. Lessons occur on a weekly basis and the club hosts an on-campus dance at the end of each semester. The club has been in existence for many years and continues to offer lessons in swing, salsa, merengue and other types of dance.	amherstswing@
Table Tennis Club	Amos Irwin aeirwin Emil Temyenalov etemnyalov09 Weekly meetings, ping pong league, equipment loans.
Teach for America	Julie Kim jhkim08 Teach for America is the national corps of outstanding recent college graduates of all academic majors who commit two years to teach in urban and rural public schools and become leaders in the effort to expand educational opportunity. Our mission is to build the movement to eliminate educational iniquity by enlisting our nation's most promising future leaders to take on this issue. In the short run, our corps members work relentlessly to ensure that students growing up in our country's lowest income communities are given the educational opportunity they deserve. In the long run, a force of leaders works from inside education and from every other sector to effect the fundamental changes needed to ensure that all children have an equal chance in life.	edward.smith@teachforamerica.org
Thoughts of Amherst	Pat Savage pesavage Will publish online academic journal in early November.	thoughts@ www.amherst.edu/~thoughts
Vietnamese Student Association (VSA)	Phuong-Lan Nguyen pnguyen08 Phuong Vuong pvuong09

	VSA works to raise awareness about issues concerning both Vietnamese and Vietnamese Americans, as well as educating Amherst students about Vietnamese culture.
Women's Water Polo	Lauren Murphy lemurphy Julie Kim jhkim08 The Amherst College Women's water polo club is a student run organization for students interested in learning and competing in the sport of water polo. No prior experience is required-the club is dedicated to teaching new members and building skills required for competition.
Writers, The	Jackline Melisa Makena jmmakena@yahoo.com Jian Li jli10 jmakena10@ The Writers' was formed in September 2006. It currently has 10 members and due to its one-on-one nature is able to accommodate only up to 20 members. It holds weekly meetings which involve discussions and critique. 'The Writers' may host public readings in the future.