

Visiting Student Application Instructions for Spring 2014

Eligibility

Students are eligible to apply as Visiting Students at Amherst (spring semester only) if they have completed at least one year as a full-time student at a college or university and are still currently enrolled. Admitted students must live on campus, complete four full-credit courses and confirm with their home institution that Amherst credits will transfer. We do not accept applications from individuals who have already earned a bachelor's degree.

Applying

To apply for admission to Amherst College as a Visiting Student, mail your application materials to the Office of Admission early enough to ensure receipt by the December 1 deadline. Notice of our decision will be sent by mid-to-late December. If admitted, you will need to reply to our offer immediately.

Regular mail:

Office of Admission
Amherst College
PO Box 5000
Amherst, MA 01002-5000

Express mail requiring a street address:

Office of Admission
Amherst College
220 S. Pleasant St. / Rt. 116
Amherst, MA 01002-5000

Transfer Applicants

Students who want to transfer to Amherst (spring or fall semesters) should use a different application for admission. Please visit www.amherst.edu/admission to obtain a Transfer Application. Please note that students who enroll as Visiting Students at Amherst are not eligible for subsequent transfer to Amherst.

First-Year Applicants

Students who wish to enroll as first-year students at Amherst (fall only) should use a different application for admission. Please visit www.amherst.edu/admission for more information.

Deferred Admission

Visiting Students are admitted on a space-available basis to address class vacancies that may exist in one semester and not the next. Therefore, it is not possible to defer an offer of admission to a later semester.

International Applicants

We welcome Visiting Student applications from international students who are currently enrolled in another U.S. college or universities. Currently, over 10 percent of our students are international.

Amherst requires any applicant whose first language is not English to submit results of the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or similar English-proficiency test (MELAB, IELTS) with the following exceptions: The TOEFL is not required of international students who were taught primarily in English for the four years of secondary school or who have scored 700 or above on the Critical Reading section of the SAT.

Electronic Applications

We do not accept the Common Application or electronic submission of applications from Visiting Student applicants, only mailed submissions.

Cost of Attendance

Tuition, Room & Board	$28,985
Other Student Fees	387
Total (Spring 2014)	$29,372

Financial Aid

Amherst does not offer financial aid to Visiting Students. However, your home institution may allow you to apply your financial aid package to a semester of study at Amherst.
