OUR MISSION
The Academic Technology Services (ATS) team works with faculty, instructional staff, and students to enhance teaching, learning, and research work through the effective, innovative, and meaningful integration of digital technologies.

TEACHING STRATEGIES WE SUPPORT

- Course Organization, Collaboration, and Community with Moodle
  - 85% of Amherst courses used Moodle in 2018-19

- Learning Communities with Google Apps

- Web & Programming Projects

- Mapping & Spatial Relationships

- Active Learning with Classroom Polling

- Universal Design for Learning with Technology

- Data Collection and Analysis

- Immersive Learning with Virtual/Augmented Reality

- Digital Storytelling and Digital Presentation
2018-2019: ATS DATA & HIGHLIGHTS

ATS ENGAGED WITH...

66% of Faculty\(^1\)
18% of Students\(^2\)
26% of Staff\(^3\) (Academic & Administrative)

ATS PROVIDES
Individual Consultations
Project Support
In-Class Workshops & Support
Institution-wide Workshops
Special Interest Groups
Department-Specific Sessions

PROJECT HIGHLIGHTS

Soundscapes of the Connecticut River Valley Web-based documentary archive showcasing student projects

French Conversation Group podcasting projects

Subtle Submergence Student project featuring data sonification

Virtual Alhambra Immersive learning experience for First Year Seminar using virtual reality

Art as Protest Class Blog using Wordpress and In-Class Multimedia Exhibit

DIGITAL ACCESSIBILITY IN ACTION

- 13 Digital Accessibility trainings for staff, with 160 attendees
- Supported faculty in providing Accessible Educational Materials
- Supported students in the use of assistive technology
- Created braille versions of academic award & diploma

Contact us through the IT Help Desk
413-542-2526
AskIT@amherst.edu
askit.amherst.edu

Total Points of Contact, 2018-19
Q&A, 60%
Workshop 29%
Meeting 11%

1. Faculty, 300 full & part time
(Amherst College Common Data Set Fall 2018)
2. 1855 students,
(Amherst College Common Data Set Fall 2018)
3. Administrative/Academic Staff, 617 full & part time
Last updated August 2019