

CLARK UNIVERSITY

ADAM INSTITUTE FOR URBAN TEACHING
AND SCHOOL PRACTICE

Master of Arts in Teaching Program

Be a Public School Educator...Challenge Convention. Change our World.

Dedicated to preparing teachers for Worcester and other urban settings

- Earn initial teaching license (reciprocal in most states) and master's degree in one year
- Enjoy a competitive advantage in hiring; M.A.T. graduates receive one year credit on the Worcester public schools pay scale
- Experience a 1:7 faculty-student ratio - explore professor profiles here
- Develop teaching pedagogy in a fully immersive practicum in one of the most culturally and linguistically diverse school districts in Massachusetts - learn about partner schools here
- Join a decades-long program recognized as exemplary and the first program in Massachusetts to earn "distinction," the highest level of approval

Teacher Diversity Initiative

Focused on increasing the number of teachers who reflect and represent the diversity of Worcester students

- Receive 50% tuition reduction
- Take part in BIPOC M.A.T. student affinity group
- Connect with M.A.T. alumni of color

For more information contact Andrea Allen at aallen@clarku.edu

www.clarku.edu/MAT

