1. Summary of Position:

The Director of Affinity Engagement will lead the development of a consistent, coherent approach to affinity engagement. The Director will manage and implement alumni engagement efforts with affinity groups. Broadly defined, work with affinities brings together alumni with shared identities or experiences. This includes race/ethnicity and identity, academic major, career, and club or sport participation. The Director will work with collaborators in Advancement and many offices on campus that support affinities such as the Office of Diversity and Inclusion, Athletics, and the Loeb Center for Career Exploration and Planning. The Director will partner with colleagues on campus and in the Advancement team on communications about affinity efforts, deepening alumni engagement around existing affinity groups, and embedding philanthropic awareness in the work.

The Director supports the College’s commitment to diversity, equity and inclusion. The Director advances the mission of Advancement, building community and creating connections among Amherst College alumni, with one another and with the College. The Director also takes appropriate actions to support a diverse workforce and participates in the College’s efforts to create a respectful, inclusive, and welcoming work environment.
