1. Summary of Position:

The Museum Educator expands Amherst College students’ engagement with art and work-learning experiences at the Mead through creative leadership and mentorship of Team Mead (student museum group) and students working across the museum, including museum educators, lobby attendants, and interns.

Intentionally designs programs to increase access to the museum for students and community members who hold historically marginalized identities. In particular,
- Creates and implements cohort-based programs for students including internships, interterm courses, and full orientation weekends.
- Designs collaborative student-facing programs in conjunction with Amherst College and Five College organizations that broaden and deepen relationships on and off campus to diverse communities.
- Creates education partnerships with K-12 schools and builds Amherst College student learning into them.

Identifies and advocates for policies and programs that contribute to an inclusive museum experience. Takes appropriate actions to support a diverse workforce and participates in the College’s efforts to create a respectful, inclusive, and welcoming work environment.

2. Principal Duties and Responsibilities:

60 % Student Engagement Program
- Design and lead student engagement programs that may include summer internships, Team Mead (student museum group), Interterm Course(s), and special art projects.
- Hires, trains and mentors a diverse group of student museum educators in curriculum development, K-12 gallery pedagogies, and inclusive museology.
- Implements systems for evaluating impact of Mead programs on individual student engagement.

25 % K-12 and Community Programs
• Creates, revises, and maintains K-12 and group curriculum, both digital and gallery-based, integrating innovative pedagogies from the field of museum education on an ongoing basis.
• Supports, plans, hosts, and staffs public programs as needed in rotation with other Education Department Staff.
• Plans, leads, and trains student staff to host community programs that actively contribute to the cultural vitality of the regional community by centering audience interests and needs and dismantling the various barriers to historically marginalized communities in museums.

10 % Cross-Functional Museum Work
• Supports interpretive projects for myriad audiences (school and public) across the museum, and integrates college students into label writing, signage, exhibition ideation, and visitor experience design whenever applicable.

5% Performs other duties/functions as requested.

All employees are expected to participate in the College’s efforts to create a respectful, inclusive, and welcoming work environment.

3. Internal-External Interaction/Communication:

The Museum Educator collaborates closely with other members of the Mead’s staff in planning innovative programs and integrating students into all aspects of the museum work. This role also collaborates with the broader Amherst community, in particular student organizations, the Loeb Center for Career Exploration, and the Center for Community Engagement.

The Museum Educator communicates regularly with staff from area school districts and a wide variety of community-based organizations.
