Please note the following departmental deadlines in connection with your senior honors essay:

Wednesday, April 5, 2017 (12 noon)
A one-page prospectus is due in the department office.
The prospectus will be used as the basis for assigning two faculty readers.

Wednesday, April 12, 2017 (12 noon)
Two copies of your thesis are due in the department office.
These copies are for the faculty readers and do not need to be bound. The readers may make notes on your essay so you may have to replace pages before turning in your final copies. You will be given the opportunity to make minor changes after receiving the readers’ comments and before submitting the final product.

Monday and Tuesday, April 17 and 18, 2017
(4:00-6:30)
Presentations in Paino Lecture Room (BEBU 107)
Honors students will give a 15-20 minute presentation of their honors work to faculty, interested economics majors and guests invited by the student. After each presentation, the floor will be open for general discussion and questions from the audience.

Thursday, April 27, 2017 (12 noon)
Three bound paper copies and one copy on CD (in PDF format) of your essay are due in the department office.

The copies will be distributed as follows:
Economics Department
Faculty Advisor
Registrar’s Office (for Library Archives)

The copies for the Department and Archives should be bound in black binders that are available at most office supply stores (A.J. Hastings, for example). Used binders are also available for a discounted cost in Archives at Frost Library. It is not necessary to submit your advisor’s copy in a black binder, but it should be bound in some other fashion (e.g., spiral binding). The CD (more detailed info attached) will be used in the economics computer lab for reference for future honors students.
