

Center for Humanistic Inquiry, 2nd Floor Frost Library
Amherst College

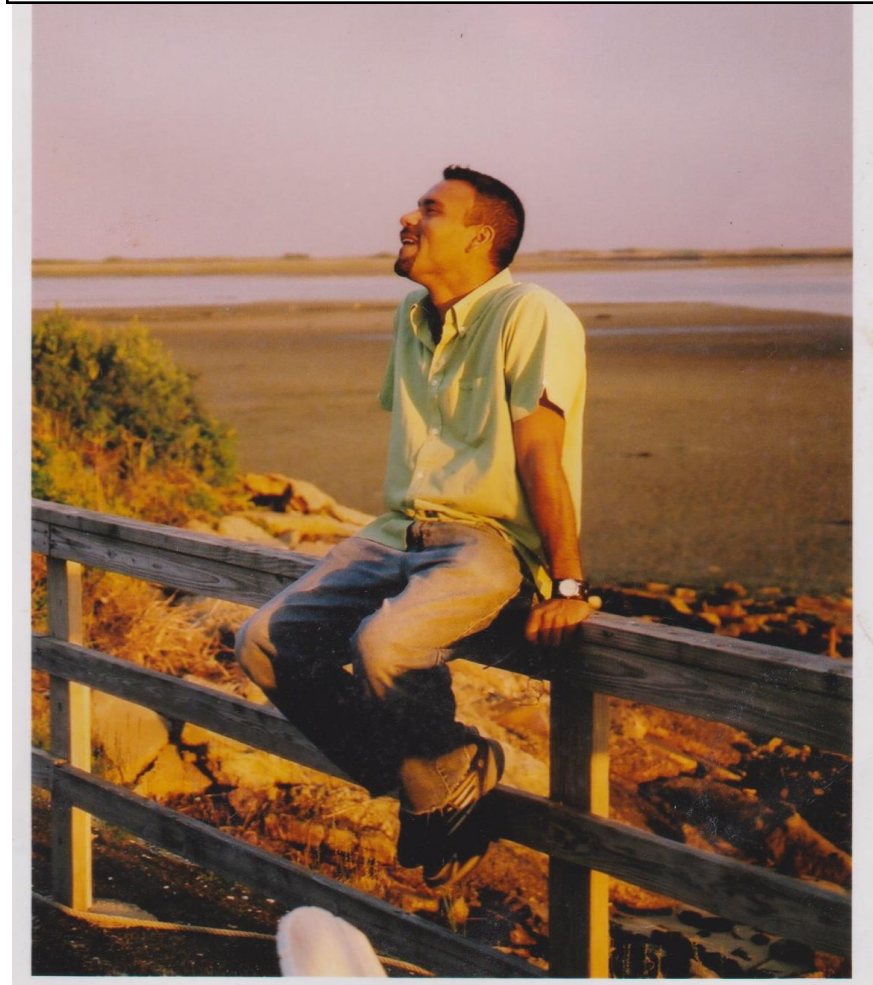

Stop Light
Intersection Route 9 and 116
From Northampton

For Upcoming Lectures & Conferences hosted by the Department of Law, Jurisprudence & Social Thought, please see our website located at.....

<https://www.amherst.edu/academiclife/departments/ljst>

https://www.facebook.com/profile.php?id=262279263809638&ref=br_tf

Thinking with Nasser Hussain Friday, Nov. 4 & Saturday, Nov. 5

At the Center for Humanistic Inquiry,
Amherst College

Schedule of Events

“ THINKING WITH NASSER HUSSAIN ”

Friday, November 4, 2016 - CHI, Frost Library

1:00 p.m. Welcome & Introduction

Prof. Martha Umphrey, LJST, Amherst College

1:15-2:15 p.m.

Jinee Lokaneeta, Drew University

“Rule of Law, Violence and Exception: Deciphering the Indian State”

2:15—3:15 p.m.

Steve Vladeck '01, University of Texas, Austin

“Habeas and the Consolidation of Judicial Power.”

3:15—3:45 p.m. Break

3:45—4:45 p.m.

Faisal Devji, St. Antony's College, University of Oxford, United Kingdom

“The Inheritance of ISIS.”

4:45—5:45 p.m.

Ethan MacAdam, New England Complex Systems Institute

“ The Shadow and the Sun ”

Saturday, November 5, 2016

9:30-10:30 a.m.

Thomas Laqueur, University of California, Berkeley

“Dogs, Horses, and the Origins of Humanitarianism.”

10:30-11:30 a.m.

Jennifer Culbert, John Hopkins University

“A Work of Mourning: Criticism after Nasser Hussain.”

11:30-1:00 p.m. Lunch

1:15-2:15 p.m.

James Martel, San Francisco State University

“The Law of Rules: Hyper-legalism, Emergency and the Violence of Procedure.”

2:15-3:15 p.m.

David Lloyd, University of California, Riverside

“Nomos and Lyric: On Poetry and Justice.”

3:15—3:30pm Wrap Up and Next Steps