THESIS FUNDING

Amherst College has a variety of funding available for thesis students. For information about these funds, visit the Alpha Delta Phi and David P. Patchel Funds website: https://www.amherst.edu/academiclife/dean_faculty/studentfunds/alpha_delta_application

If you are seeking research funding, you will need to share your application materials with your advisors ahead of time so that we can write a letter of support for you to send in with your application.

Please note that applications for these funds will be reviewed only twice during the academic year. The deadlines for these review periods are listed on the website.

Grants do not normally exceed $1,200 per semester per applicant. In special cases—for example, for projects necessitating expensive international travel—larger grants may be given.
