

Kanji Practice and Quiz Schedule

&lt;as of January 17, 2011&gt;

The schedule below is to learn 60 new kanji, which is a minimal requirement for all of you. There will be two quizzes for each unit. The first quiz focuses on writing only new kanji at a word level. In the second quiz, you are required to write kanji for words in sentences, where old kanji may be included. The second quiz also includes Katakana reading and writing. (See below for Katakana writing.)

If you wish to move faster than the schedule and learn more kanji this semester, you can do so by submitting WPB and taking a quiz earlier. You can move faster at your own pace, but you are not allowed to fall behind the schedule. You need to schedule a quiz with the instructor ahead of time.

Kanji #	Writing Practice		Kanji Katakana Quiz
	Submit	Pick-up
1 – 50 (review)	xxxxx	xxxxx	KKQ#1 (Review Quiz) / January 28 (F) Review Kanji #1-50 for writing.

			KKQ#9 / April 29 (F) Study “Examples” (WPB, pp.126) for Kanji writing. There will be no Katakana reading in this quiz.

<Katakana Writing on the Quiz>

Words for Katakana Writing on the Quiz will be from Katakana Reading in a previous unit in WPB. For example, on the KKQ#3, you will write some of the Katakana words from Katakana Reading (fruit names) provided in the previous unit (for #41-50) on pp.94 of WPB. Pronunciation of each Katakana word will be provided along with English on the Quiz. For example, you will see “melon /meron”, and write “メロン”.
