

AMHERST CENTER FOR RUSSIAN CULTURE

Zarotchintseff Printed Materials
1935-1950s

Summary: The Zarotchintseff Printed Materials collection reflects a short period of activities of M.T. Zarotchintseff, a chief executive officer of the National Frosted Food Sales Corporation. It consists of newspaper and journal clippings and brochures for the years 1935-1950.

Quantity: 1 folder

Containers: 0.25 document manuscript box

Processed: January 2013

By: Tanya Chebotarev

Listed: January 2013

By: Tanya Chebotarev

Finding Aid: January 2013

Prepared by: Tanya Chebotarev

Edited by: Stanley Rabinowitz, Director, Center for Russian Culture

Access: There is no restriction on access to the Zarotchintseff Printed Materials research use. Particularly fragile items may be restricted for preservation purposes.

Copyright: Requests for permission to publish material from the Zarotchintseff Printed Materials should be sent to the Director of the Amherst Center for Russian Culture. It is the responsibility of the researcher to identify and satisfy the holders of all copyrights.

INTRODUCTION

Historical Note

M.T. Zarotchintseff was a Russian émigré engineer who promoted frozen food in the United States. This small collection consists of one folder of printed materials related to the activities and promotion of the National Frosted Foods Sales Corporation.

History of the Papers and Their Organization

In 1991, the Zarotchintseff Printed Materials were donated to the Amherst Center for Russian Culture by Thomas Whitney, AC Class of 1937.

DESCRIPTION OF THE COLLECTION

Scope and Content Note

There is only one folder of printed materials promoting the National Frosted Foods Sales Corporation.

Organization and Arrangement

The Collection is organized as follows:

Box	Folder	Dates	Description
1	1	1935-1950s	newspaper and journal clippings, brochures