Course Description

This course is a continuation of Japanese 05. The course will provide sufficient practice of reading authentic texts and viewing films to prepare for the next level, Japanese 11, in which various genres of reading and films will be introduced. Throughout the course, the development of more fluent speech and stronger literacy will be emphasized by studying more complex and idiomatic expressions. Acquisition of an additional few hundred characters (Kanji) will be part of the course. The class will be conducted mostly in Japanese. Small groups based on the students' proficiency levels will be formed, so that instruction accords with the needs of each group. Students will be required to practice with the materials that are on the course website at the college. Two group meetings and two individualized or small group evaluation sessions per week are normally required throughout the semester.

Course Objectives

At Amherst, it takes about two years (full courses) for most students to master the following:

1. most of the essential structures of Japanese;
2. several hundred Kanji for writing and an additional few hundred for reading (the Japanese government identifies roughly 2,000 for Japanese children to learn before graduating from high school);
3. being able to engage in different kinds of conversations (some practical and some abstract) comfortably in Japanese;
4. being able to read and write cohesive paragraphs in Japanese;
5. being able to read different kinds of materials independently with the aid of dictionaries and instructors.

IMPORTANT: For five-college interchange students: Unfortunately the academic calendar of the five-colleges is not uniform. It is our expectation, however, that all students who take Japanese at Amherst will follow the Amherst calendar, including the final examination schedule as well as the daily schedule. To be fair to other students, we will NOT be able to make special arrangements for the final examinations for the five-college students.

Course Organization

Monday	(1) test or (2) assignment (see detailed schedule on CMS).
Tuesday	The class meets in Webster 101. New material will be introduced. Students are expected to read the material (Grammar Book) to be covered in class before coming to the class. We do not expect the students to have learned the new vocabulary for this class.
Wednesday	Small group practice sessions will be held (Webster 115). The material introduced on the previous day, Tuesday, will be practiced in small groups. Students are expected to have reviewed the Tuesday material (Workbook) and have learned the new vocabulary before coming to this class.
Thursday	The class meets in Webster 101. New material will be introduced. Students are expected to read the material (Grammar Book) to be covered in class before coming to the class. We do not expect the students to have learned the new vocabulary for this class.
Friday	Small group practice sessions will be held (Webster 115). The material introduced on the previous day, Thursday, will be practiced in small groups. Students are expected to have reviewed the Thursday material (Workbook) and have learned the new vocabulary before coming to this class.

- Division of Large and Practice sessions:

The Japanese courses numbered 01 through 06 (sometimes even in Japanese 11-12) have large classes and small practice sessions. There is a good reason for us to have the two different classes. In the large classes, the students learn new material, which they learn how to use in the small practice sessions.

- Practice session time (Wednesday and Friday):

Please sign up for one of the following sessions the first week or so. We will then make a permanent session for everyone. Once we make the permanent schedule for the practice sessions, all students must stay in the same sessions.

- | | | |
|------------------|------------------|----------------|
| 1. 9:00 - 9:50 | 3. 11:00 - 11:50 | 5. 2:00 - 2:50 |
| 2. 10:00 - 10:50 | 4. 1:00 - 1:50 | |

Policies

Being successful in a Japanese language class requires going to every class, participating fully, meeting deadlines for frequent assignments and preparing thoroughly for quizzes and classes. And no delays are allowed for any quizzes and tests, including the final written examination or the final oral presentation. We understand, however, that keeping up with frequent requirements for a Japanese class may be difficult at times. We have therefore made the following policies to have a little more flexibility. Other exceptions can be made only with the class Dean's or your doctor's note.

1. Attendance

- Tardiness is penalized.
- It is not possible to give a make-up class or practice session to a student who was absent. It is your responsibility to check the daily schedule and to know what you have missed with your classmate(s). Please do not ask your instructor if you have missed anything important when you were absent because the answer is always YES. If you have specific questions, we would be happy to meet with you at our offices.

2. Practice Session Performance

- Each Practice session is evaluated and graded.
- Sit-in Option:
 - (1) The students have to come to a practice session, but do not participate in a session. This means that the students sit in the back and learn by observing what other students are doing in a session. When the students choose to use this option, let the instructor know prior to a session. When the instructor finds that a student is not prepared enough, she may recommend her or him to take this option during a practice session.
 - (2) The students can use this option twice this semester without any penalty. This means that the first two use of this option will not affect the grade on "Practice session performance" and the students receive an attendance credit. This option will not apply when the students are absent from a session. From the third time on, the students still receive an attendance credit, but no points will be given for "Practice session performance" on that day.

3. Assignments

- Weekly assignments are due Tuesday class. We allow each student to submit two assignments late per semester, but the late assignments must be completed and submitted in Thursday class (same week).
- Your assignment will be given points (0 ~ 20). Correction, when required, is due Thursday class. Some points may be added to the original grade, and the number of point depends on the quality of corrections.

4. Written Tests

- No make-up test will be given under any circumstances, but the students will have an option of correcting any test; in this case, some points may be added to the original grade, and the number of point depends on the quality of corrections.

5. Kanji quizzes

- Starting in the second week, you have to complete a kanji quiz in Webster 114 before Tuesday 1 pm every week. (You may take it on Monday 9 – 5 and Tuesday 9 – 1)
- Practice 15 kanji in each section and submit the Writing Practice Book in Thursday class. For Kanji quiz, practice kanji words in “Example” in sentences at the end of each section. (See Daily Schedule.)
- If you want to complete more Kanji quizzes each week, you may do so. Please talk to the instructor.
- The two lowest scores will be dropped from the final grade.

Schedules Check CMS daily for detailed schedule.

- Tentative written test dates: 2/17 (Th), 3/24 (Th), 4/19 (T)
- Tentative oral test dates: 2/18 (F), 3/25 (F), 4/20 (W)

Recommendations

• Studying and practicing regularly is the single most important requirement for learning Japanese well for the course. We have observed over and over again a strong correlation between steady study habits and performance in this class: we have never met a student who did well in this course without attending classes and practice sessions regularly. On the other hand, everyone who takes attendance seriously does well in the course.

• Use Japanese as much as possible in all sessions.

• Communicate with your instructor regularly via any method you may have: e-mail, phone, office visit, etc. Everyone has problems in learning Japanese. Silence or absence from classes is not an effective way to communicate your issues. No problem is a small problem. We deal with every issue seriously, so please bring any issues you have to us as soon and as often as possible.

Things to remember in practice sessions

- ✓ The students are required to study the material BEFORE coming to each practice session so that the practice sessions will move smoothly and meaningfully.
- ✓ Come to every practice session. This is probably the most important way to participate in class and learn.
- ✓ No English is allowed as soon as you enter your practice session. Japanese should be used among the students in the room as well as with the teacher. Imagine the situation where you are among people who speak no English in Japan. You do have to speak Japanese to communicate. Your teacher or an English-speaking person will not be able to accompany you everywhere you go in Japan.
- ✓ Please avoid any grammar questions. If you must ask, wait until the session is over. When you have other questions (such as a meaning of a certain word), ask in Japanese.
- ✓ Do not be afraid to make mistakes. We will not take any points off for mistakes in the practice sessions. It is natural to make more mistakes when you speak more.
- ✓ Do not take it personally when corrected. Being corrected is one of the best ways to learn to speak. In fact, you must get used to being corrected all the time.
