

Survey on Sexual Respect and Sexual Misconduct

January 15, 2015

Introduction (listed on the first page of the survey)

Survey on Sexual Respect and Sexual Misconduct

We estimate that this survey will take 15 minutes to complete. This survey is completely ANONYMOUS and VOLUNTARY. You do NOT have to participate in this survey, and if you do choose to participate, you may skip any question you are not comfortable answering. You may exit the survey at any time. Use the box at the bottom of each page to provide additional information you wish to share.

Content Warning: This survey asks about specific experiences with sexual assault and other forms of sexual violence and misconduct. Some of the questions use explicit language and descriptions, and may be upsetting. Resources and support are available both on- and off-campus -- telephone numbers for these resources are listed on every page of the survey should you need them.

Resources (listed on the bottom of each page of the survey)

This survey is completely ANONYMOUS and VOLUNTARY.

Confidential Resources: The questions in the survey can be hard to think about. They may have reminded you of experiences that you, or a friend or family member have gone through. If you would like to talk to someone immediately about questions or concerns relating to sexual assault or intimate partner violence, please see below for a list of 24-hour resources:

- Amherst College Counseling Center (available 24/7) 413-542-2345
- Center for Women and Community (24-hour rape-crisis hotline) 413-545-0800
- Safe Passage (24-hour intimate partner violence hotline) 413-586-5066
