

College	Office Name	Population Served	Additional Contact Information
Amherst College	Class Deans (Office of Student Affairs)	Each Class has a specific Class Dean assigned to provide academic support for students	Email: cmoulton@amherst.edu or mwelles@amherst.edu for an appointment. Call 413-542-2337
Hampshire College	Center for Academic Support and Advising (CASA)	Academic deans support students in each stage of the Divisional System. There are specific deans assigned to Division I (first-year), Division II (students in the 2nd and 3rd year) and Division III (the final or "senior" year. The Div III dean is also the transfer student dean. CASA is overseen by the Dean of Academic Support and Advising.	Email: advising@hampshire.edu
Mount Holyoke College	Office of Academic Deans	Each class has a specific Class Dean assigned to provide academic support for students. Their work is overseen by our Dean of Studies.	Mount Holyoke students can be referred to the Academic Deans Office at 413-538-3610 for an appointment or, for quick matters, stop by the office during their MHC dean's published drop-in hours. Any faculty teaching MHC students are welcome and encouraged to contact an MHC academic dean individually or, if easier to email the generic academic-deans@mtholyoke.edu address to report issues, ask questions, or to make an appointment for further discussion.
Smith College	Class Deans (Dean of the College division)	Each student has a class dean, in addition to a faculty adviser. Each class dean is responsible for a class year, and the junior class dean also works with our Ada Comstock scholars (non-traditional students).	classdeans@smith.edu
UMass Amherst	Academic Deans offices within each college; supplementary support via Student Success	Every student has an academic dean based on their college. Students not yet in a declared major still belong to a college and receive academic dean services & advising based on the broad definition of their Exploratory Track. Students with double majors have a "primary" plan, which indicates their academic dean. Academic deans work closely with academic advisors.	Faculty teaching UMass students are welcome to contact a student's academic dean, or can contact Student Success for assistance with that referral: studentsuccess@umass.edu .