

Five College Geology Faculty
Symposium
Hosted by UMass Geosciences
21 September, Thursday
Morrill 2, Room 222

Pizza at 6 PM and talks start at 7.

7:00 -- Vivian Leung

Mount Holyoke Fellow/Visiting Lecturer

Wood Debris & the Elwha River Restoration: How Wood Debris
Interacts with River Morphology, Dam Removals, and Deltas. (25 min talk)

7:30 – Bob Newton, Smith College

Environmental Mercury: The Legacy of Mining and Atmospheric Deposition in New England - The Cooks Pond Story.

7:45 – Michele Cooke, UMass-Amherst

Is the Earth Lazy?

Watching faults grow in the lab informs crustal fault evolution.

8:00 – Tekla Harms, Amherst College

What's new in old rocks in Montana"

