

Dear Alumni, Parents, and Friends of Amherst Football:

Greetings from Amherst! As the snow continues to fly outside my window here at Alumni Gymnasium, I pause to reflect upon the accomplishments of our graduating class. The class of 2014 has enjoyed tremendous success during their tenure on the gridiron. This group earned a remarkable 27 wins with only 5 losses during their four-year careers. These wins include two NESCAC championships and three consecutive victories over archrival Williams College (2011-2013). In praising these accomplishments I realize that the foundation of our excellence comes from you – the incredibly loyal alumni, parents, and friends of Amherst Football. I would also like to recognize and send my heartfelt thanks to my dedicated and talented coaching staff. Remarkable things can occur when no one cares who gets the credit, and without their hard work and dedication none of our success would be possible. In addition, I want to personally thank all of you who extended me congratulation’s on achieving 100 wins at Amherst. The players and assistant coaches deserve all the credit. I remain both humbled and honored to serve as the Head Football Coach at Amherst College. I would also like to offer a special thank you to offensive coordinator Don Faulstick who also achieved his 100th win with the program. Kudos to Coach “Stick” for standing with me through thick and thin and for showing us all the way to achieve success by continuing to innovate and to lead. Please join me in applauding him as he embraces his new role as acting Director of Athletics at Amherst College.

The 2013 season marked a new era in the home facilities as we inaugurated the new and improved Pratt Field. I welcome all of you to visit this extraordinary facility. The new layout captures the intimacy of the storied Pratt Field experience. Many people ask me – why the switch to field turf? The answers are simple. It is safer than a grass field and it enables us to have a perfect practice field each and every day – regardless of the weather. The enhanced lighting and the state of the art training facilities are a testament to Amherst College’s mission to educate the whole scholar-athlete. The new facility complements our program’s mission to achieve success and benefits the entire college community.

This past season our team voted on team core principles of: trust, family, respect, preparation, and to attack every day. These community values aided our players in reward on and off the field. Because of our program’s hard work, nine players were selected to the NESCAC All-Conference teams. Offensively, Rob Wasielewski ’14 OL (Winnetka, IL) and Jake O’Malley ’14 WR (Medfield, MA) received First Team honors, while Jack MacLennan ’14 OL (Edina, MN) and Gene Garay ’15 WR (Rockville Centre, NY) received Second Team nods. The Lord Jeff defense had four players receive First Team All-Conference honors: Dan Chun ’14 LB (Monroe, NY), Landrus Lewis ’14E DB (Pennsauken, NJ), Max Lehrman ’15 DL (Washington, DC), and Chris Tamasi ’15 LB (Canton, MA). Rounding out the honorees was Phil Nwosu ’15 PK (Derwood, MD) who was selected as a First Team place kicker. I am extremely proud of the group we had this year and all of their accomplishments on and off the field.

I ask that you take a moment, today, to click on the bold and help us by filling out this Alumni/Friend of Amherst Football questionnaire.
