LIFE AT AMHERST IS VIBRANT

All around campus, students find communities in which they become involved—spaces for dancing, chatting, creating, spaces that become like second homes.

Amherst students have countless opportunities to enrich their educations through co-curricular and extracurricular activities. A student might go to hear a guest speaker in anthropology, take a karate class, sing in an a cappella concert and then help paint a house with Pioneer Valley Habitat for Humanity—all in a single week!

Campus Life

Amherst students don't get just a world-class education—they also have some world-class fun. Explore the many aspects of social life at Amherst and see which ones excite you the most.

Student Groups & Publications

Students lead more than 100 different autonomous organizations, including groups for activism and community service, religious and cultural affinity groups, intramural sports teams, arts clubs, newspapers and journals, a debate team, a radio station and more.

Housing

97 percent of students live on campus, and housing is guaranteed for all four years. First-year students live in new or renovated residences on the Main Quad, featuring well-designed living spaces, as well as common spaces for studying, socializing, playing music and performing. Our Theme Houses offer learning-by-living opportunities.
