This is a working document for scaffolding anti-racism resources. The goal is to facilitate growth for white folks to become allies, and eventually accomplices for anti-racist work. These resources have been ordered in an attempt to make them more accessible. We will continue to add resources. UPDATED 06/12/20

Reject the desire to ask Black folks, Indigineous folks or people of color (BIPOC) to explain racism for you. Instead, find resources created by BIPOC to help educate yourself, or offer to financially compensate BIPOC folks who are educating you!

Do not let guilt (white guilt) or shame stop you from doing anti-racist work.

Find a way to do the work of anti-racism. Some examples might include attending a training, joining an allies group, participating in a protest. Keep working to grow, instead of settling into shame, and ask folks how you can grow.

Remember that moving forward is important. It might be helpful to revisit some of the previous resources to help remind you of why this work is important.
Continue to find a way to participate. Some examples might include attending a training, joining an allies group, participating in a protest. Keep working to grow, instead of settling into shame.

- Might affirm or seek to comfort the BIPOC who is addressing racism.

IMMERSION

- Begins to work against systems of oppression, rather than seeing racism as individual actions.
- Is able to embrace their own white identity & what their whiteness means, while also working alongside BIPOC.
- Works actively to be anti-racist.

Activities:

Reflective Journal Prompts

a. Think about the country that you live in. What are some of the national racial stereotypes--spoken and unspoken, historic and modern--associated with Black women? Black men?

b. How do you see colorism at work in this country? How do you see colorism at work in your own prejudicial thoughts?

c. How have you expected Black women to serve or soothe you?

d. How have you reacted in the presence of Black women who are unapologetic in their confidence, self-expression, boundaries, and refusal to submit to the white gaze?

Podcasts:

1. Kaepernick (Still Processing)
2. White Lies (NPR)

Articles:

AUTONOMY
- Embodied anti-racism: being willing to step in the way of racism when possible, engage in protests
- Has done the work to recognize their own identity, so that they can effectively be anti-racist.
- Recognizes that growth is continual, and they might need to revisit previous stages.

Activities:
Answer these questions (written by Nii Addo Abrahams, M.A., M. Div. / Twitter & Instagram @nickyflash)

- Does your solidarity last longer than a news cycle?
- Does your solidarity make you lose sleep at night?
- Does your solidarity put you in danger?
- Does your solidarity cost you relationships?
- Does your solidarity take away time from other things you could be doing?
- Does your solidarity change the way you spend your money?
- Does your solidarity make you a disruptive presence in white spaces?
- Does your solidarity challenge your country's values?
- Does your solidarity make you think you're not racist?
- Does your solidarity change how you read your Bible?
- Does your solidarity change how you preach?
- Does your solidarity happen when no one is looking?
- Does your solidarity ever cause you to speak out when no one wants to listen?
- Does your solidarity ever cause you to shut up when you want to say something?
- Does your solidarity change the way you vote?
| Does your solidarity cause you to denounce our current president? |
| Does your solidarity include cis-het Black women? |
| Does your solidarity include Black queer and trans folks? |
| Does your solidarity make you suspicious of predominantly white institutions? |
| Does your solidarity cause you to believe in costly reparations? |
| Does your solidarity assuage your white guilt? |
| Does your solidarity have room for Black rage? |
